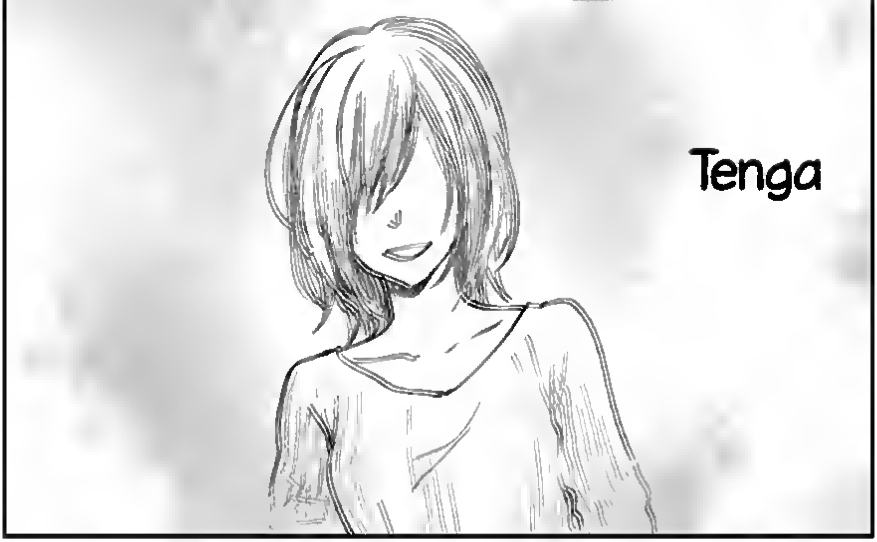
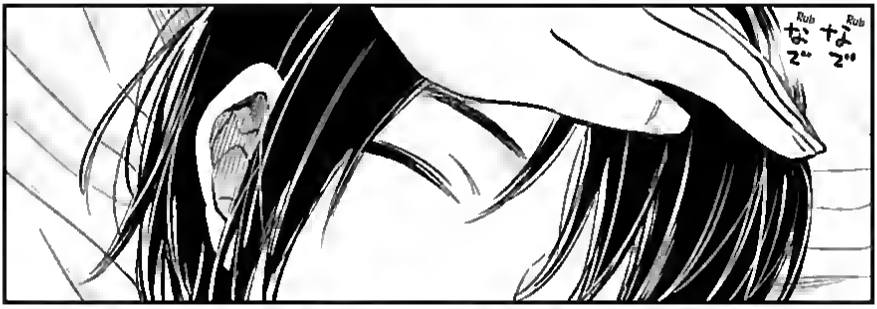
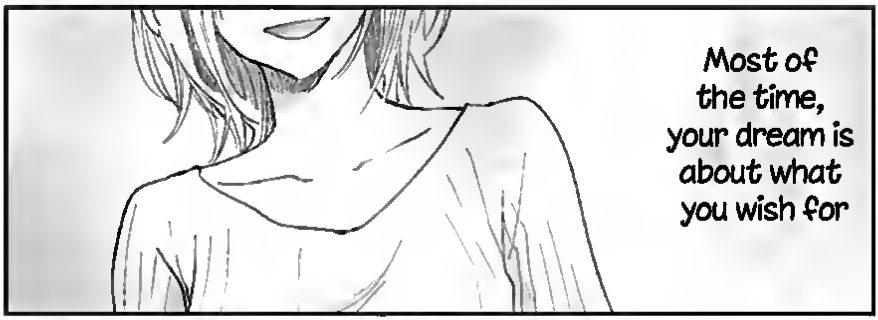
LESSON 2 ★知りたい！

LESSON 2: I WANT TO KNOW

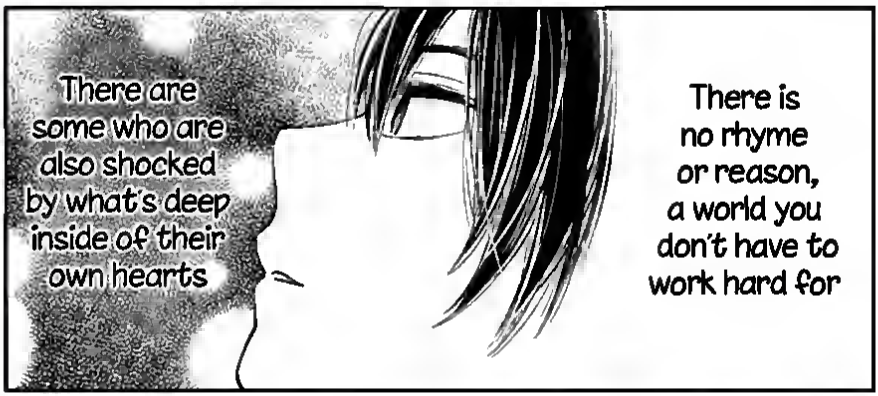




With dreams



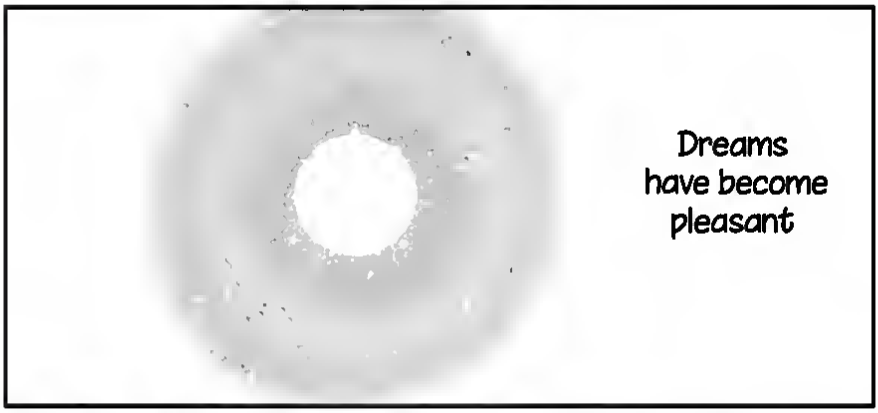
Most of the time, your dream is about what you wish for



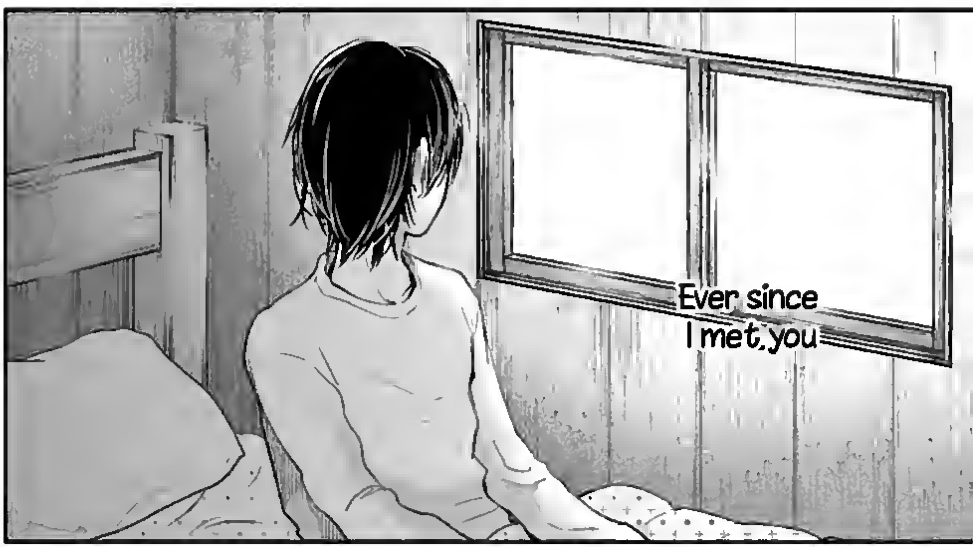
There are some who are also shocked by what's deep inside of their own hearts
There is no rhyme or reason, a world you don't have to work hard for

Thought "ah, yet again" and "as expected"
I've always

I don't have nightmares anymore

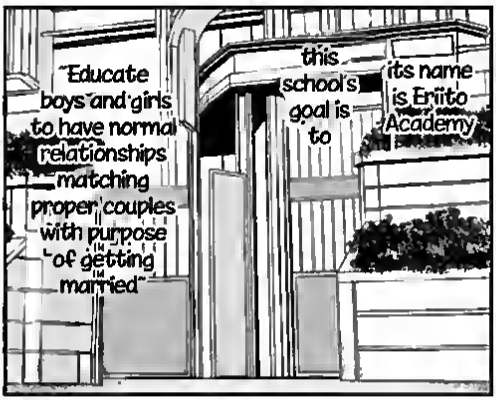


Dreams have become pleasant



Ever since I met you

TL note: Aniki is a respectful way of referring to old brother



"Educate boys and girls to have normal relationships matching proper couples with purpose of getting married" this school's goal is to its name is Eriito Academy

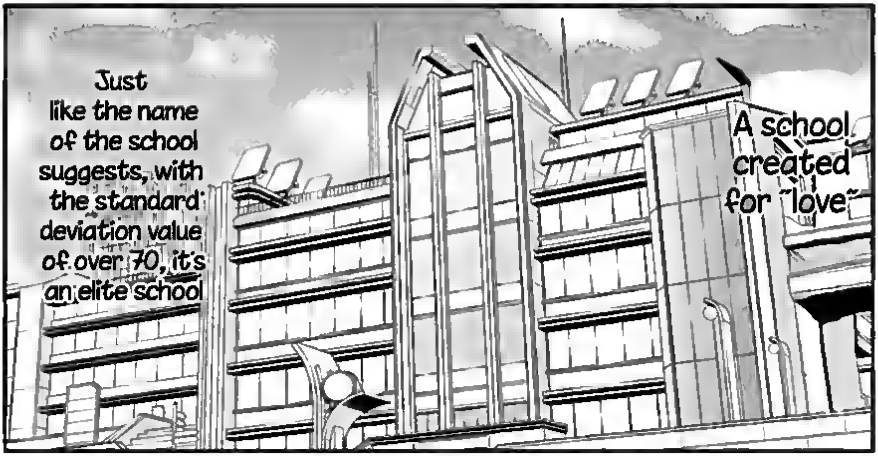
Therefore, the government has set up this academy
Year 20xx- The problem of population decline got worse.



Just like the name of the school suggests, with the standard deviation value of over 70, it's an elite school
A school created for "love"

Of course a large amount of donations and tuitions is needed

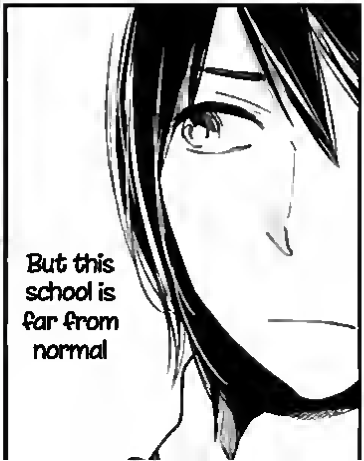
thanks to that, your future is pretty much set in stone when you enter this school

Similar to an elevator university, it has an influence that guarantees you to get top jobs after graduation

Therefore the students here are all very wealthy

Because of that "promise"...

In this school, sexual relationships are much more important than grades
In order to quickly and successfully pass down the best genes possible



It's crazy...
Failing student (virgin)
